LOVE

a project where you
do something every day? does it become a grind — like a
job? do not let the
schedule direct you.

focus on the
pleasure
of
being done.

better to be a
producer, with
a without an audience. the wheel, not the spinning.

an excuse, a motivation
to keep working, so easy to just lie on the couch,

like a sack of shit
consuming the produce of others moving toward the hayfork limit.
